

WIND TURBINE STUDY

Naples, New York

Passero Associates was hired by a local law firm on behalf of a community organization to study the potential impacts of a proposed wind turbine farm. Passero conducted a thorough evaluation of all the factors involved in the proposed project, including environmental concerns such as noise and visual impacts and delivered a study report to the client.

Completion Date:
2008

Services Provided:
Technical Engineering
Assistance

